

LAUNCH TEAVIGO DUATHLON SERIES

Johannesburg, SA, 22 May 2007

MEDIA PERSONALITIES AND SPORTS CELEBRITIES COMPETE IN A DUATHLON!

The launch of the Teavigo Duathlon Series, culminating in the Vit-T-Go AFRIMAN, was hosted by Kieno Kammies from Radio Jacaranda and Nick Bester, 1991 Comrades Winner and former South African Duathlon Champion .

Kieno Kammies will be pairing up in the Teavigo Duathlon Team event with well known Radio 5 FM's Koula, who coached by Nick Bester, is currently in training for this years Comrades Marathon. Koula will use the Teavigo Duathlon in Vanderbijlpark on 9 June to round off her training.

Also present at the launch was South Africa's Comrades hopeful, Brian Zondi who narrowly came second last year behind Oleg Kharitonov. He will also be taking part in the remainder of the Teavigo Duathlon Series to sharpen up his speed for the Comrades Marathon on 17 June.

Up until now there has been a huge ' Duathlon gap' on the South African sporting calendar. The Teavigo Duathlon Series and the Afriman Duathlon fills this gap with prize money in excess of R 300 000!

Not only targeting professional athletes, these events target children, corporates, schools and families. With the first 2 events in the series having taken place at Maropeng and Bela Bela, we have seen elite athletes such as Hendrik De Villiers, Nick Bester, Chrissie Viljoen, Mome Bester, Charne Rademeyer, Zintle Sinqe, Iain Don-Waschopp and Kirsty Weir on the podium.
