Article 28. Procedure and decision-making.

1. The Supervisory Board shall appoint from its members a chairman and a deputy chairman who shall replace the former in his absence. It shall appoint a secretary, either from its own members or otherwise, and shall make arrangements for the latter's replacement.
2. In the absence of the chairman and of the deputy chairman at a meeting, the meeting itself shall designate a chairman.
3. The Supervisory Board shall meet whenever the chairman or any two other members of the Supervisory Board so request, or the Managing Board makes such a request.
4. Minutes shall be kept by the secretary of the proceedings of the meeting of the Supervisory Board. The minutes shall be adopted at the same meeting or at a subsequent meeting of the Supervisory Board and signed by the chairman and the secretary in evidence thereof.
5. All decisions of the Supervisory Board shall be taken by an absolute majority of the votes cast.
6. The decisions taken at a meeting of the Supervisory Board shall only be valid if the majority of the members of the Supervisory Board is present or represented at the meeting.
7. A member of the Supervisory Board may be represented by a fellow member of the Supervisory Board by a written power of attorney. A member of the Supervisory Board may not act as representative for more than one fellow member of the Supervisory Board.
8. The Supervisory Board may also take decisions outside meetings, provided the proposal concerned has been submitted to all the members of the Supervisory Board and none of them have opposed this manner of decision-making. A report of decisions taken in this way shall be drawn up by the secretary and signed by the chairman and secretary, and the answers received shall be attached. This manner of decision-making shall be noted in the minutes at the next meeting of the Supervisory Board.

9. The Supervisory Board shall meet jointly with the Managing Board as often as the Supervisory Board deems necessary or the Managing Board requests.
10. A member of the Supervisory Board may not participate in deliberating and decision-making within the Supervisory Board, if with respect to the matter concerned he has a direct or indirect personal interest that conflicts with the interest of the Company and the business connected with it.
11. In the event of the absence or inability to act of a member of the Supervisory Board, the other members or member of the Supervisory Board shall be entrusted temporarily with the supervision of the Managing Board.
12. In the event of the absence or inability to act of all members of the Supervisory Board or of the only member of the Supervisory Board, the Managing Board will decide to what extent and in which manner the duties and authorities of the Supervisory Board will temporarily be taken care of.
13. The Supervisory Board shall draw up rules concerning the division of tasks, working methods and the method of decision-making.

Article 29. Committees.

1. The Supervisory Board may, without prejudice to its responsibilities, designate one or more committees from among its members, who shall be entrusted with the tasks specified by the Supervisory Board.
2. The composition of any such committee shall be determined by the Supervisory Board.
3. The General Meeting may additionally remunerate the members of the committee(s) for their services.

CHAPTER X

Article 29A. Indemnity.

1. The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board (each of them, for the purpose of this article 29A only, the "Officer") against the financial implications of any and all liabilities and all claims, judgements, fines, costs and damage as a result of any imminent, pending or completed action, investigation or other proceeding, whether civil, criminal or administrative (each, a "Legal Action"), brought by any party other than the Company itself or its group companies, on the basis of acts or omissions of the Officer in or related to his capacity as a member of the Managing Board or Supervisory Board ("Claims").
2. The Officer will not be indemnified with respect to Claims in so far as they relate to the gaining of personal profits, benefits or remuneration to which he was not legally entitled. The Officer will also not be indemnified with respect to Claims as far as the Officer's liability on the basis wilful misconduct (opzet) or intentional recklessness (bewuste roekeloosheid) has been established at law, unless the law provides otherwise or - given the circumstances - it is unacceptable according to criteria of reasonableness and fairness.

3. Any expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs) (together the "Expenses") the Officer shall incur in connection with any Legal Action, shall be reimbursed by the Company, but only upon receipt of a written undertaking by that Officer that he shall repay such Expenses if a competent Court should determine that he is not entitled to be indemnified. Expenses shall be deemed to include any tax liability which the Officer may be subject to as a result of his indemnification.
4. Also in case of a Legal Action brought against the Officer by the Company itself or its group companies, the Company will reimburse to the Officer his reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs but only upon receipt of a written undertaking by that Officer that he shall repay such fees and costs if a competent Court should resolve the Legal Action in favour of the Company or its group companies rather than the Officer.
5. The Officer shall not admit any personal financial liability vis-a-vis third parties, nor enter into any settlement agreement, without the Company's prior written authorisation. The Company and the Officer shall use all reasonable endeavours to cooperate with a view to agreeing on the defence of any Claims. If, however, the Company and the Officer do not come to an agreement, the Officer shall carry out all instructions given by the Company at its sole discretion.
6. The indemnity referred to in this article 29A shall not apply if and to the extent reimbursement has been paid for Claims and Expenses under a directors' and officers' liability insurance and/or a legal assistance insurance and/or a comparable insurance the Officer can make use of. If the insurer(s) concerned refuse to provide reimbursement in whole or in part for such Claims and Costs while in the opinion of the company such reimbursement has to be paid in whole or in part, the Company shall still indemnify the Officer provided that the Officer assigns his claims against the insurer(s) concerned to the Company.
7. Without prejudice to the provision set forth above in this article, Claims and Costs shall be paid by the Company to the Officer within five working days after they have become due and payable by the Officer, provided that the Officer assigns to the Company all claims he may have against third parties and/or the insurer(s) that are related to the Claims and Costs.
8. This article 29A may be amended without the consent of the Officer as such. However, the indemnification and the obligation of reimbursement set out hereinabove shall continue to apply with respect to Claims and/or Costs arisen by an act or omission of the Officer in the period in which this provision was in force.

CHAPTER XI

Annual accounts and annual report. Profit.

Article 30. Financial year. Annual accounts and annual report.

1. The financial year shall coincide with the calendar year.
2. Annually, not later than four months after the end of the financial year, the Managing Board must prepare annual accounts and deposit the same for inspection by the shareholders at the Company's office. Within the same period, the Managing Board must also deposit the report of the Managing Board for inspection by the shareholders.
3. The annual accounts shall be signed by the members of the Managing Board and the members of the Supervisory Board. If the signature of one or more of them is missing, this shall be stated and reasons for this omission shall be given.
4. Annually, the Supervisory Board shall prepare a report, which shall be enclosed with the annual accounts and the report of the Managing Board.

Article 31. Adoption of the Annual Accounts and Release from Liability.

1. The Company shall ensure that the annual report is kept at its office as of the day on which notice of the annual General Meeting of shareholders is given. Shareholders and other persons who are entitled to attend may inspect the documents at that place and obtain a copy free of charge.
2. The General Meeting shall adopt the annual accounts.
3. At the General Meeting of shareholders at which it is resolved to adopt the annual accounts, it shall be separately proposed that the members of the Managing Board be released from liability for their managerial activities and the members of the Supervisory Board be released from liability for their supervision thereof, insofar as the exercise of such duties is reflected in the annual accounts or otherwise disclosed to the General Meeting prior to the adoption of the annual accounts.

Article 32. Reservation. Dividend.

1. Every year the Managing Board, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, shall decide which part of the profit - the credit balance of the profit and loss account shall be set aside.
2. Out of the profit remaining after the setting aside of part thereof in accordance with the previous section, a dividend shall be distributed insofar as possible on the cumulative preference shares B, of which the percentage shall be equal to the average of the one month EURIBOR (Euro Interbank Offered Rate) - weighed in proportion to the number of days over which the distribution is effected - plus a premium, to be determined by the Managing Board with the approval of the Supervisory Board, which premium shall be depending on the prevailing market conditions. The dividend shall be computed over the proportionate period of time if the relevant cumulative preference shares B were issued in the course of the financial year. The dividend percentage shall be computed over the paid-up part of the par value. If the dividend percentage which applies to the cumulative preference shares B cannot or can no longer be computed by the method referred to in the first sentence of this section, at any time, the Managing Board shall, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, determine a different computation method for that dividend percentage which, in its judgement, is as similar as possible.

3. From the amount remaining of the profit after the application of section 2, a dividend shall be distributed insofar as possible on the cumulative preference shares A, the percentage of which, to be computed on the computation basis set out below, shall in percentage terms be equal to the total dividend that was distributed on each ordinary share in the previous financial year divided by the average share price of an ordinary share during that financial year. The average share price referred to in the previous sentence means the average closing price of an ordinary share on Euronext Amsterdam on the days Euronext Amsterdam is open for trading during the relevant financial year. The percentage referred to in the first sentence may be increased or decreased by a mark-up or discount of no more than one hundred (100) basis points, to be determined by the Managing Board in consultation with the Supervisory Board.

The basis for the computation of the dividend on the cumulative preference shares amounts to five euros and twenty-nine and forty-two hundredth eurocents (EUR 5.2942) per cumulative preference share A.

4. If, for any financial year, the distributions on the cumulative preference shares B and A according to sections 2 and 3 cannot be effected or cannot be fully effected because the profit after reservation does not suffice, the deficit shall be distributed to the debit of the following financial years, without prejudice to the provisions of article 33, section 3.

In that case, each time as much as possible, the overdue dividend, augmented by the dividend for the last expired financial year, shall be distributed, first on cumulative preference shares B and next on cumulative preference shares A.

5. The remaining profit shall be put at the disposal of the General Meeting provided that no further dividend shall be distributed on the cumulative preference shares A and the cumulative preference shares B.
6. If a loss has been suffered in any year, no dividend shall be distributed for that year, without prejudice to the provisions of article 33, sections 3 and 4. In following years, too, a distribution of profits can only take place after the loss has been compensated from the profits. However, the Managing Board may decide, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, to settle such a loss to the debit of the distributable part of the shareholders' equity.

7. The Managing Board may decide to distribute an interim dividend. The decision shall be subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board.
8. Articles 104 and 105, Book 2 of the Civil Code also apply to distributions to shareholders.

Article 33. Distribution in shares and to the debit of the reserves.

1. At the proposal of the Managing Board, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, the General Meeting may decide that a distribution of dividend on ordinary shares shall take place, in whole or in part, not in money but in shares in the Company.
2. However the Managing Board may, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, decide that a distribution of interim dividend on ordinary shares shall take place, in whole or in part, not in cash but in shares in the Company. In addition the Managing Board may also decide that the payments shall take place to the debit of the distributable part of the shareholders' equity.
3. The Managing Board may, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, decide to distribute the dividend referred to in article 32, section 2 and/or the dividend referred to in article 32, section 3, in the case referred to in article 32, section 4 or otherwise, to the debit of the distributable part of the shareholders' equity.
4. The Managing Board may, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, decide to make payments to holders of ordinary shares to the debit of the distributable part of the shareholders' equity, which distributions in accordance with section 1 shall take place in money and/or in shares in the Company. No distributions as referred to in the first sentence of this section can be made unless all distributions referred to in article 32, sections 2 and 3 have taken place.

Article 34. Date for payment.

1. Dividends and other distributions shall become payable not later than thirty days after being decided. This date shall be announced in accordance with article 44.
2. A shareholders claim based on his entitlement to dividend, and to other distributions on shares shall be prescribed by five years after the day on which it was payable.

1. Each shareholder is authorized, either in person or represented by a representative authorized in writing, to take part in, to speak at, and to the extent applicable, to exercise his voting rights in the General Meeting of shareholders. The provisions of this article 41 concerning shareholders apply by analogy to each usufructuary and pledgee of shares to the extent they are entitled to voting rights and/or the right to attend General Meetings of shareholders.
2. For each General Meeting of shareholders a record date will be applied, which will be the twenty-eighth day prior to the day of the meeting (or, as the case may be, the day that at any time is set by law as record date), in order to determine which persons are deemed to be the shareholders for the purpose of section 1. The record date and the manner in which shareholders can register and exercise their rights themselves or by a written representative will be set out in the notice of the meeting.
3. A shareholder or his proxy will only be admitted to the meeting if he has notified the Company of his intention to attend the meeting in writing at the address and by the date specified in the notice of meeting. A shareholder or his proxy will only be admitted to the meeting, if the shares in question are registered in the shareholder's name on the record date referred to in section 2. The proxy is also required to produce written evidence of his mandate. The Company offers those entitled to attend meetings the opportunity to notify the Company by electronic means of a power of attorney granted.
4. The Managing Board is authorized to determine that the rights in respect of a General Meeting of shareholders as referred to in section 1 can be exercised by using an electronic means of communication. If so decided, it will be required that the shareholder or his proxy holder can be identified through the electronic means of communication, follow the discussions in the meeting and exercise the voting right. The Managing Board may also determine that the electronic means of communication used must allow the shareholder or his proxy holder to participate in the discussions.
5. The Managing Board may determine further conditions to the use of electronic means of communication as referred to in section 4, provided such conditions are reasonable and necessary for the identification of the shareholder and the reliability and safety of the communication. Such further conditions will be set out in the notice of the meeting. The foregoing does, however, not restrict the authority of the chairman of the meeting to take such action as he deems fit in the interest of the meeting being conducted in an orderly fashion. Any non or malfunctioning of the means of electronic - communication used is at the risk of the shareholder using the same.

6. Each person eligible to vote or his representative shall sign the attendance list before the commencement of the meeting, or have his presence recorded on the attendance list. 2. Each share shall carry the right to one vote.
3. If in the election of persons no one has obtained an absolute majority, a second free vote shall be held. If no one again obtains an absolute majority, further votes shall be held, until either one person has obtained an absolute majority or a vote between two persons has ended in a tie. In the event of the further votes mentioned (not including the second free vote), the vote shall always be held between the persons voted for in the previous vote, but with the exception of the person receiving the lowest number of votes in the previous vote. If in the preceding vote more than one person received the lowest number of votes, it shall be decided by drawing lots which of the persons may not go forward to the next round. If a vote between two people results in a tie, the winner shall be decided by drawing lots.
4. If a vote other than an election of persons results in a tie, the motion shall be rejected.
5. The chairman of the meeting will decide whether and to what extent votes are taken orally, in writing, electronically or by acclamation.
6. Blank votes and invalid votes shall count as uncast votes.
7. The Managing Board may determine that votes cast by electronic means of communication or by letter before the general meeting of shareholders shall be treated the same as votes cast during the meeting. These votes cannot be cast before the date of registration, as referred to in article 41 section 2. Without prejudice to the other provisions of article 41, the notice shall state the manner in which persons entitled to take part in and vote at meetings may exercise their rights prior to the meeting.
8. The provisions of articles 13, 117, 117a and 117b, Book 2 of the Civil Code also apply to the General Meeting of shareholders.

2. During the liquidation, the provisions of the Articles of Association shall remain in force as far as possible.
3. From whatever remains after the payment of the debts, the following payments shall first be made to the holders of cumulative preference shares B:
 - a. any dividend due as meant in article 32, section 2, in that case to be computed over the period up to the date the liquidation distribution becomes payable; and
 - b. the paid-up part of the par value of their shares.

If the balance is not sufficient for that purpose, the payment shall be made in proportion to the amounts paid up on those shares.

4. From whatever remains after application of section 3, the following payments shall be made to the holders of cumulative preference shares A:
 - a. any dividend still due as meant in article 32, section 3, in that case to be computed over the period up to the date the liquidation distribution becomes payable; and
 - b. an amount per cumulative preference share A, equal to the computation basis meant in article 32 section 3.

If the balance is not sufficient for that purpose, the payments shall be made in proportion to the par value of those shares.

5. The remainder shall be distributed to the holders of ordinary shares in proportion to the joint amount of the ordinary shares of such holders.
6. In all other respects, the liquidation shall be subject to the provisions of Title 1, Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code.
