

Vertis™ CanolaPRO® plant-based beverage Vanilla flavor

A growing number of consumers are seeking to add plant proteins to their diet. However, flexitarians shopping for plant-based beverages want those products to have the same taste and texture of traditional dairy plus added health benefits. It's no easy task creating a plant-based beverage that ticks all the boxes, but DSM's toolbox of taste, texture, and health solutions is here to help.

Nutritious and major allergen-free

This smooth and nutritious vanilla plant-based dairy alternative beverage is made with Vertis™ CanolaPRO®, a high-quality canola protein isolate. Vertis™ CanolaPRO® is a complete protein—containing all the essential amino acids—creating a beverage with a protein level on par with traditional dairy. Vertis™ CanolaPRO® together with hydrocolloids, GELLANEER™ ND-102 and PECTNER™ 300FB, create a smooth mouthfeel for a beverage that's simply, deliciously drinkable.
