

Creating a healthy planet for healthy people

Dimitri de Vreeze, co-CEO, DSM
May 25, Japan Sustainability Forum

NUTRITION • HEALTH • SUSTAINABLE LIVING

DSM

BRIGHT SCIENCE. BRIGHTER LIVING.

Nations Unies
Conférence sur les Changements Climatiques 2015
COP21/CMP11
Paris, France

Nations Unies
Conférence sur les Changements Climatiques 2015
COP21/CMP11
Paris, France

.... at our site in Greenville, we saved the equivalent emissions of 365 US households.

820 MILLION

People globally face chronic hunger

2 BILLION

People suffer from hidden hunger

14.5%

Global GHG emissions are from lifestock

$1 Trillion

Annual value of food
wasted globally

1.9 Billion

People in APAC unable to afford a healthy diet

Consumers

- Conscious about sustainable food
- Willing to pay premium
- Shift towards alternative proteins
- Increased consumption of supplements

7

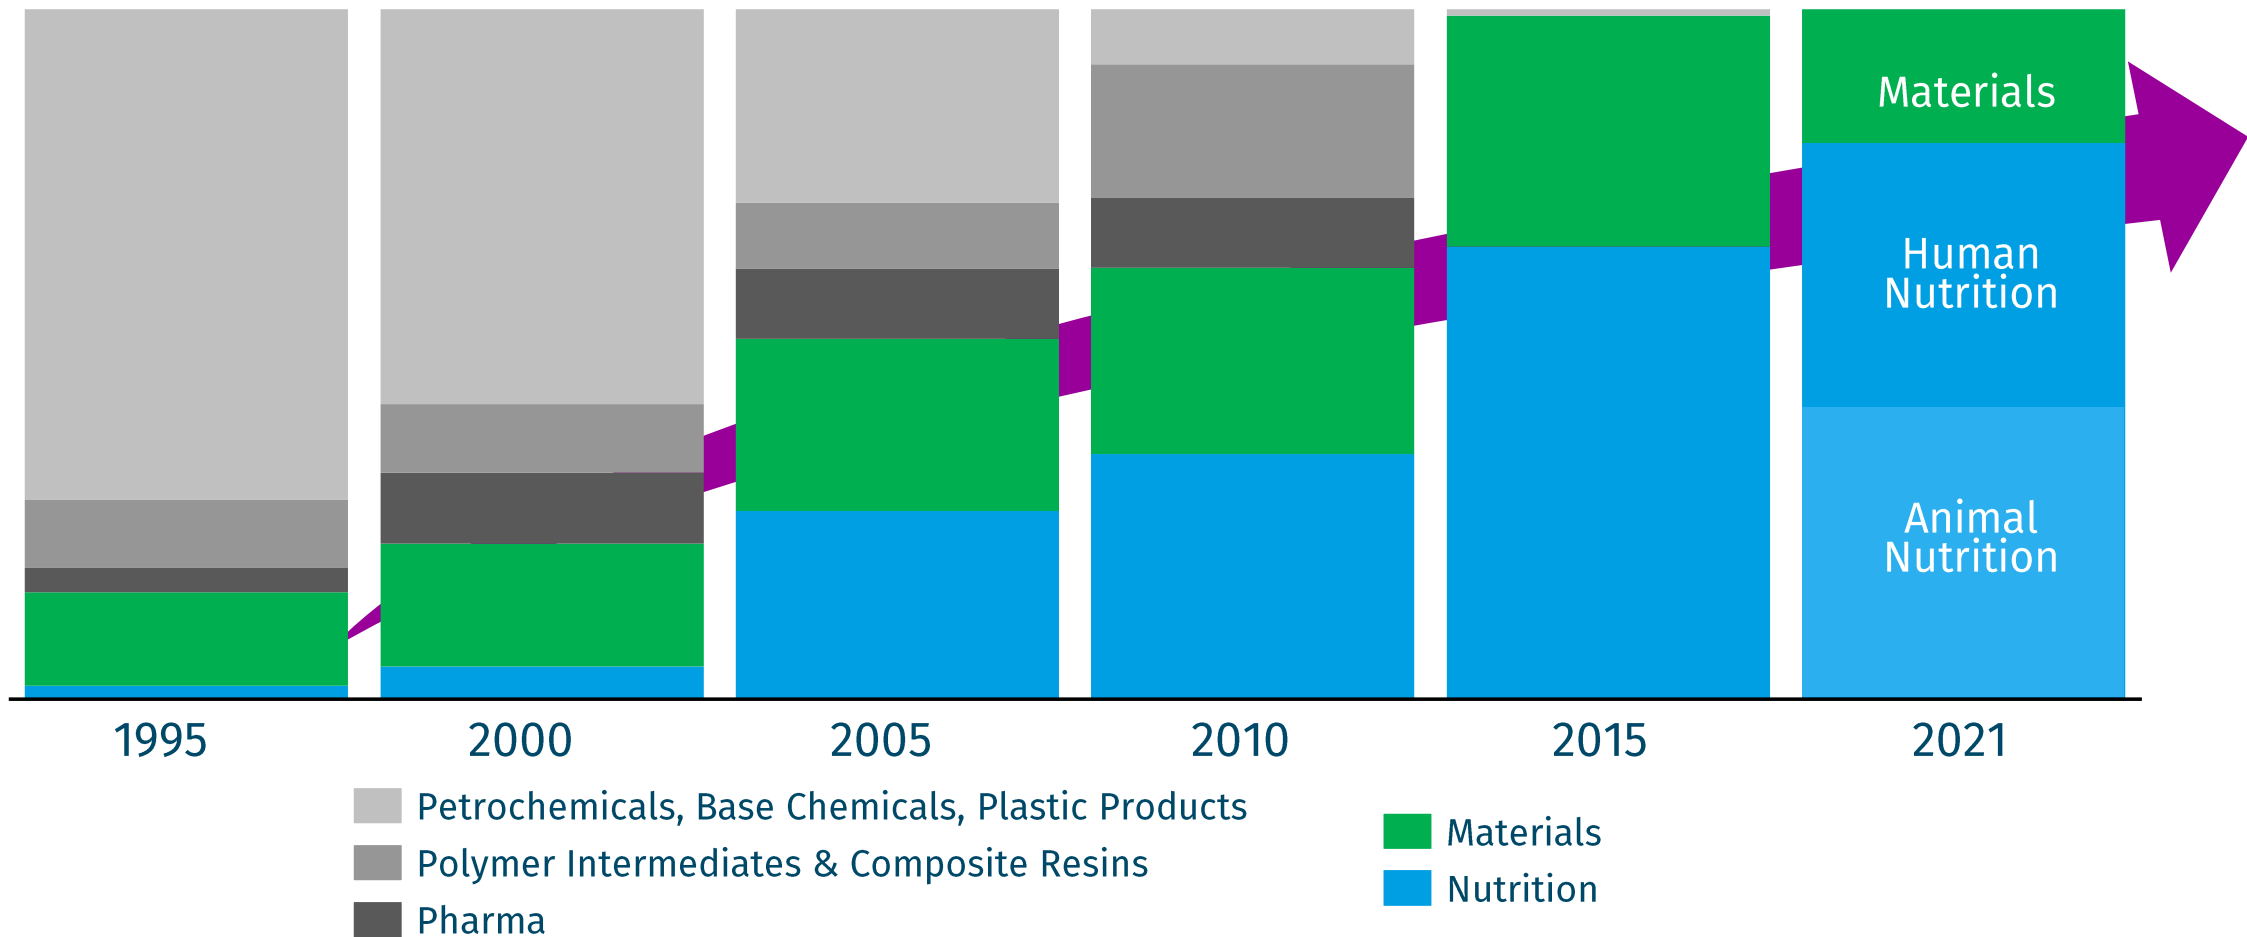

Governments

- Focus on food security and access to nutrition
- Build food sufficiency

DSM is a Nutrition, Health and Sustainable Living company

Activities in % of DSM sales

Increases shell thickness by 4%

Reduces egg breakages by 15%

An aerial night view of a city, likely Toyota City, Japan, with a large, snow-capped mountain (Mount Fuji) in the background. The city lights are visible, and the mountain is illuminated by the setting or rising sun.

Japanese innovation

redefines how we live

40%
of the Japanese population will be 65 by 2060

2021

The Road Ahead

